AS FOR A TWENTY-NINTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

To the extent Plaintiff makes a claim for punitive damages, Merck asserts that Plaintiff has not complied with statutory requirements to recover punitive damages.

AS FOR A THIRTIETH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

To the extent Plaintiff's claims invoke punitive damages, such claims violate the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States, on the following grounds:

- (a) It is a violation of the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution to impose punitive damages, which are penal in nature, against a civil Defendant upon a Plaintiff satisfying a burden of proof which is less than the "beyond a reasonable doubt" burden of proof required in criminal cases;
- (b) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded may result in the award of joint and several judgments against multiple Defendants for different alleged acts of wrongdoing, which infringes the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution;

- (c) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded fail to provide a reasonable limit on the amount of the award against Defendant, which thereby violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. See Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Haslip, 111 S. Ct. 1032, 113 L. Ed. 2d 1.
- (d) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded fail to provide specific standards for the amount of the award of punitive damages which thereby violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution;
- (e) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded result in the imposition of different penalties for the same or similar acts and, thus, violate the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution;
- (f) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded permit the imposition of punitive damages in excess of the maximum criminal fine for the same or similar conduct, which thereby infringes the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments and the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution; and,
- (g) The Retroactive application of punitive damages violates the contracts clause of the United States Constitution, Article I, Section 10.
- (h) Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violate the due process clause of Article I, Section 13 of the Constitution of Alabama, on the following grounds:
 - (1) It is a violation of the due process clause to impose punitive damages which are penal in nature, upon a civil Defendant upon a Plaintiff satisfying a burden of proof less than the "beyond a reasonable doubt" burden of proof required in criminal cases;

- (2) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded fail to provide a limit on the amount of the award against these defendants;
 - (3) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded are unconstitutionally vague;
 - (4) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded fail to provide specific standards for the amount of the award of punitive damages; and,
 - (5) The award of the punitive damages in this case constituted a deprivation of property without due process of law.
- (i) Plaintiff's attempt to impose punitive or extra-contractual damages on these defendants, on the basis of vicarious liability for the conduct of others, violates the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
 - (j) The award of punitive damages to any of the Plaintiff in this action would constitute a deprivation of property without due process of law required under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
 - (k) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded permit the imposition of an excessive fine in violation of Article I, Section 15, of the Constitution of Alabama.
 - (l) The award of punitive damages against these defendants in this action would violate the prohibition against laws that impair the obligations of contracts in violation of Article I, Section 22 of the Constitution of Alabama.
 - (m) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded are vague and unpredictable such that they violate the defendant's right to defend himself pursuant to Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution of Alabama.

- (n) The procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded permit the imposition of punitive damages in excess of the amount established by the legislature under Ala. Code, Section 27-1-17 (1975), in violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U. S. Constitution and Article, Section 6, of the Alabama Constitution.

AS FOR A THIRTY-FIRST
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

The Complaint seeks to make Merck liable for punitive damages. The United States Supreme Court has reversed the Alabama Supreme Court in the case styled BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore, 116 S.Ct. 1589 (1996) on the issue of punitive damages. Merck adopts by reference the defenses, criteria, limitations, and standards mandated by the United States Supreme Court decision in that case and in Cooper Industries, Inc. v. Leatherman Tool Group, Inc., 532 U.S. 424 (2001), State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 (2003), and any subsequent applicable decisions.

AS FOR A THIRTY-SECOND
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

Merck affirmatively pleads that any punitive damages that any of the Plaintiff may recover in this case should be capped in keeping with Alabama Code Section 6-11-21, as amended in 1999 (Act. No. 99-358) and in the spirit of the Alabama Supreme Court's decision in Oliver v. Towns, 738 So. 2d 798 (Ala. 1999).

AS FOR A THIRTY-THIRD
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

The demand for punitive damages in the instant case is subject to the limitations established by the Alabama legislature and set forth in Ala. Code §6-11-21, (1975). Merck adopts by reference the defenses, criteria, limitations, and standards mandated by this Alabama statute. The Alabama Supreme Court's action in abolishing the legislatively created cap on punitive damages was unconstitutional and is without effect. Under the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Alabama, the Alabama Supreme Court cannot abolish the cap created by the legislature on punitive damages through this judicial decision. See Honda Motor Company, Ltd. v. Oberg, 512 U.S. 415, 114 S. Ct. 2331, 2340 n.9 (1994).

AS FOR A THIRTY-FOURTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

Merck avers that the punitive damage cap set out in Ala. Code §6-11-21, (1975) applies to the instant case. See Horton Homes, Inc. v. Brooks, 832 So. 2d 44 (Ala. 2001).

AS FOR A THIRTY-FIFTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

Merck avers that the punitive damages award is subject to limitation based on harm that has occurred and harm that is likely to occur. See TXO Production Corp. v. Alliance Resources Corp. 113 S. Ct. 2711 (U.S. 1993).

AS FOR A THIRTY-SIXTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

Merck avers that the method of imposing punitive damages violates Amendment 328, Section 6.11, which prohibits the use of a procedural rule to abridge, enlarge or modify the substantive right of any party. See Leonard v. Terminix Intern. Co., L.P. 854 So. 2d 529 (Ala. 2002).

AS FOR A THIRTY-SEVENTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

The imposition of punitive damages is an act of policy making on the part of the judiciary, in violation of Article III, Section 43 of the Constitution of Alabama.

AS FOR A THIRTY-EIGHTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

Merck adopts the terms of any applicable legislative act or Alabama Supreme Court decision which now or hereafter precludes punitive damages or limits the amount of punitive damages that can be recovered in an action at law in Alabama.

AS FOR A THIRTY-NINTH
DEFENSE, MERCK ALLEGES:

Merck hereby gives notice that it intends to rely upon such other defenses as may become available or appear during discovery proceeding in this case or that are included in the master answer to be filed in the Multidistrict Litigation proceeding before Judge Fallon of the Eastern District of Louisiana. Merck hereby reserves the right to amend its answer to assert any such defense.

Inasmuch as the Complaint does not describe the alleged underlying claims with sufficient particularity to enable Merck to determine all of its legal, contractual and equitable rights, Merck reserves the right to amend and supplement the averments of its answer to assert any and all pertinent liability defenses ascertained through further investigation and discovery of this action. Merck will rely on all defenses that may become available during discovery or trial.

WHEREFORE, Merck respectfully demands judgment dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint with prejudice and awarding Merck its reasonable costs and disbursements, together with such and other and further relief that the Court may deem just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Merck demands a trial by jury as to all issues so triable.
